Benjamin Franklin's Birthday

January 17, 1956, was celebrated around the world as the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin whose Poor Richard's Almanac gives this publication its name. "Ben" Franklin, as he is affectionately called, is known for his kite and key and his dangerous tampering with electricity as well as for the literary help he gave to Thomas Jefferson when he wrote the Declaration of Independence. It has even been said that if "Ben" had not figuratively rubbed oil on the heads of the early American fathers during the writing of the American Constitution and kept them to it, that document might never have been finished. The staff of this year's book would have welcomed his presence and not a little of his oil, for the job which they set themselves, that of answering, "What is an American high school?" turned out to be a big one. But being the first to recognize their inadequacy, they most humbly offer this small volume of a year's history in the lives of over one thousand "Bens" as a pictorial description of classes, sports, and social activities, which stirred together make an American high school.

"The eye of the master will do more work than both his hands."

BOYS' VICE-PRINCIPAL, Mr. Leroy Dooly, who is in charge of boys' activities, has two children, Kay and Dick, who attend school in South Pasadena.

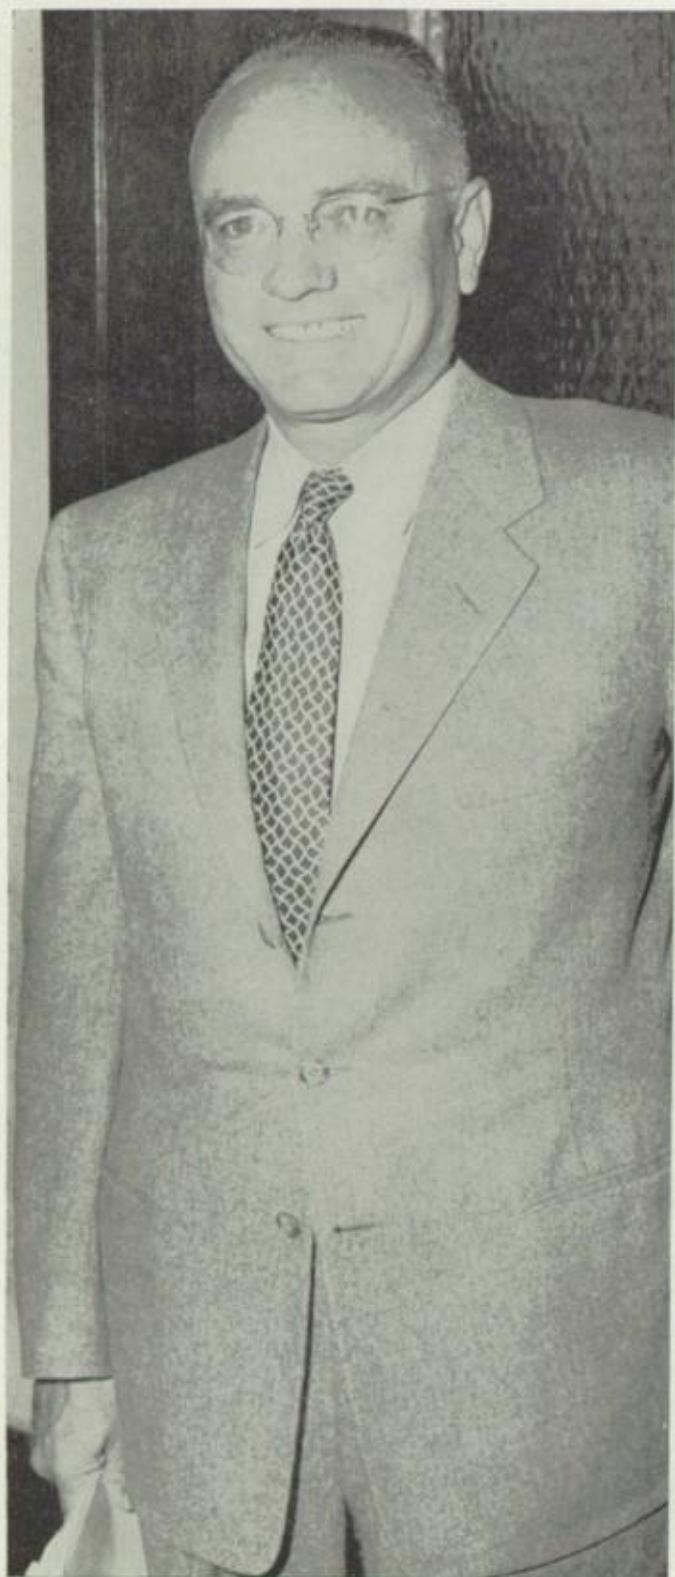

GIRLS' VICE-PRINCIPAL, Mrs. Elsa Mae Smith, whose daughter, Martha Ann, is at the University of Southern California, makes girls her business.

In The Class Rooms

Louis Riggio snapped Betty Thurman, working on the largest bowl ever made at Franklin, which was later exhibited at the Bullock's Scholastic Art Show.

Lower left photos—Mr. Murray Shapiro outlines the assignment for his English class, which appears to be listening intently. Louis Riggio made these casual shots.

Lower right photos—Mr. Charles Carnes, new drafting instructor, is a graduate of Western Loyola, where he majored in industrial arts. His hobby is gymnastics, and when in college, he was rated among the top twenty all-around performers in the United States.

Anthony Loya, the Almanac staff photographer, sneaked in and snapped this quickie in the middle of Mrs. Ruth Major's math class. Roger Sunde appears stunned; Jerry Farmer, in deep thought.

The 1955 Leadership Class inaugurated the selling of activity cards, which allowed the purchaser to enter all sports events and pay assemblies. It took part in the P. T. A. Drive and arranged for assemblies, including the "Ebonaires," William Warden as a German schoolmaster, and the annual Christmas musical. In 1956 the Dave Pell Octet, a panel of speakers from the International Club at Los Angeles City College, and a Memorial Day Program were featured. As a final gesture toward financing the handbook for new B10's, on the Friday after Easter all the cars in the neighborhood were washed clean.

The Dardanians

The Dardanian Class presented its colors of rose and charcoal to the student body in the Senior B Sweater Day vaudeville program. The highlights of the Senior A semester included Dress Up Day, which was themed "Film Fantasies," with Billie Goodsell and Carlo Norton elected king and queen. The theme of the Prom was "Winter Stardust," and the crowned queen, Marian Neely. The Dardanians ended three years at Franklin with vespers and a boat trip in San Pedro Harbor.

The Capris presented their colors of electric blue and white at the traditional Sweater Day Program. At noon balloons were sent up and were later reported over Eagle Rock. At the Senior B Christmas Party Santa Claus distributed gifts. The Senior A semester began with a party at the Moonlight Skating Ring. Pussy cats, humpty dumpties, owls, and dwarfs infiltrated classes and halls, portraying "Fairytale Fantasy" at the annual Dress Up Day. At the Prom, "Southern Nocturne," the Capris danced on a Southern plantation. After the Vesper Service, graduation was held in the Hillside Theatre at Occidental College.

People Are Talking About

Three Instrumentalists

Mary Rae Arvedson has been playing a clarinet for eight years. At Franklin she was in both the band and orchestra. At the University of California at Los Angeles she plans to major in music.

Marie Wirsching not only plays the bass but the cello and drums as well. At present she is uncertain whether Occidental or the University of California at Los Angeles will claim her.

Sydne Kagan has played her violin in both the All City Orchestra and All Southern California. At the University of California at Los Angeles she plans to major in sociology.

A Designer

Marion Neely has created many designs for costumes, posters, using pen and ink as well as water color for her media. While at Franklin she won the Saturday morning scholarship at Chouinard's Art School. When she graduates from college, she plans to be an elementary school teacher.

Two Dancers

At Franklin Pat Alden has taken leading roles in the Modern Dance programs. She plans to study dancing at Pasadena City College, but she intends to be a fashion buyer. Jeannie Hill has specialized in tap and ballet, and has been seen many times with the Modern Dance group. At Pasadena City College she plans to study nursing.

A Dancer

Carol Cena not only studies dancing but has been teaching it as well. While at Franklin she appeared in many assemblies. She plans to go into musical comedy.

A Saxophonist

Curtis Bianchi expects to use his musical ability to help pay his way through the University of California at Los Angeles where he will study engineering. Twice he has played with Gene Norman's Campus Club as well as with Ronald Large's orchestra, and at Franklin with both the band and orchestra.

Four Bullock's Gold Key Winners

A Painter and Drummer

Joe Pagone won a thirty-dollar paint box in a hobby show in grammar school and has been painting ever since. The "Times" Boys' Club has featured his water colors. The club arranged an exhibit at Bullock's, and it is said that Joe stole the show. He not only wields a paint brush but plays the drums in the Franklin band. On weekends he is with Sal Chico, drumming for weddings and dances.

Upper photos, left to right, Diane Hawthorth won first place in the semi-finals of the Fall Speech Festival. In "Sugar and Spice," she played the part of the mother. During her last semester, she became president of the national honorary drama club, the Thespians. At Los Angeles Junior College, Diane will study acting.

Gloria Matherly has been publicity chairman for Franklin during her entire senior year. She has been drawing ever since she caught her finger in a door and sketched on the bandage. She plans to submit a portfolio to Walt Disney's Studio.

Bessie Mulino was chosen by the faculty to represent Franklin at the Girls' state convention which is held each summer at Sacramento and is sponsored by the American Legion.

Robert de la Roche, staff artist for the Almanac, designed the silk screened cover as well as made all the incidental drawings, which poked fun at everyone from dignified faculty members to fellow students. Robert has a string of prizes to his credit, including the Lathan Poster Award; recognition in the Ford contest; a Gold Key in ceramics at the Bullock's Scholastic Art Show. He has also been invited to caricature Alex Cooper, popular M. C. on "Spotlight on Youth", T. V. Show. Art Center is his choice for future art training. His hobbies, skin diving and hunting, add variety to an embryo artist's life.

The Press

During 1955 and '56, the "Press" was victorious in the Community Chest Campaign, coming in first in three categories: best feature story, best coverage, and best interview (with the Superintendent of the Los Angeles City Schools himself!)

In the TB contest, the "Press" survived the league, city, and county competitions, but was knocked out at the state level. Other special editions included the eight page senior number, the April Fool's Fantasy, and Sweater Day.

Game Fun

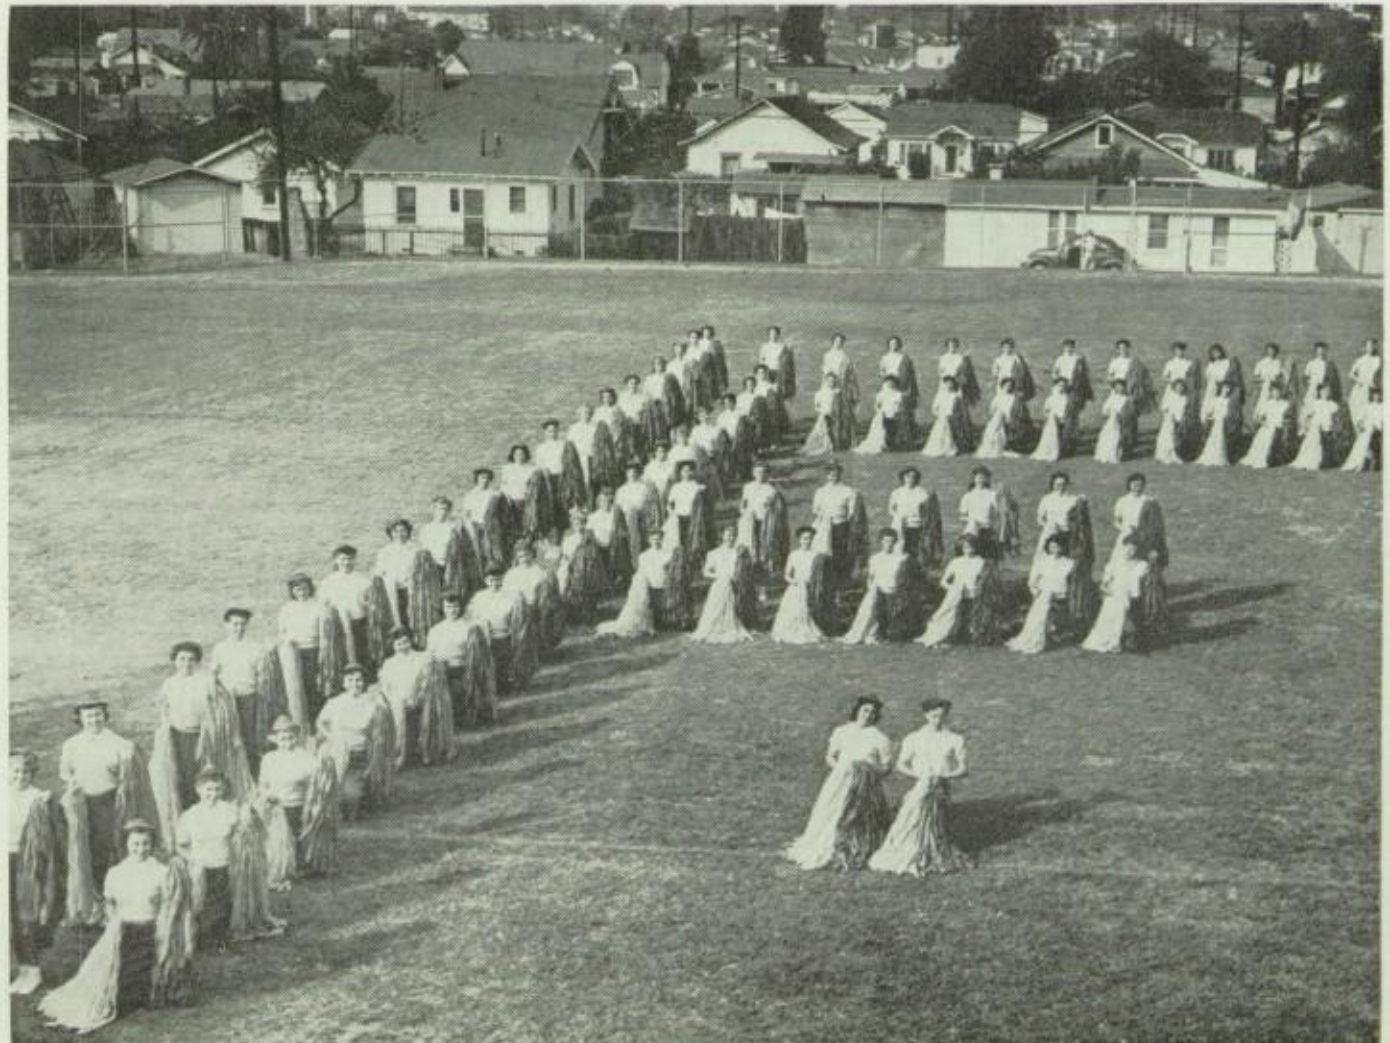

The brand new score board bought with the sweat and tears of the student faculty show, "Whistle Stops," chalks up good news for the home team.

The grand stands shout and writhe to the direction of Carl Keith, Rickey Gerhard, Wayne Bise, Don Marr, Paul Porner, and Don Williams.

Feminine cheers speed the heroes to victory, led by Carol Cena, Diane Stead, Virginia Giletta, Nancy Anderson, Sonja Dial, and Sue Shaver.

The misses of the drill team with their blue skirts, yellow sweaters, and yellow top-knotted hats are making Franklin's F while the grandstands thunder applause. The two smiling captains are Ann Watson and Jean Hill.

"Power to the bold."

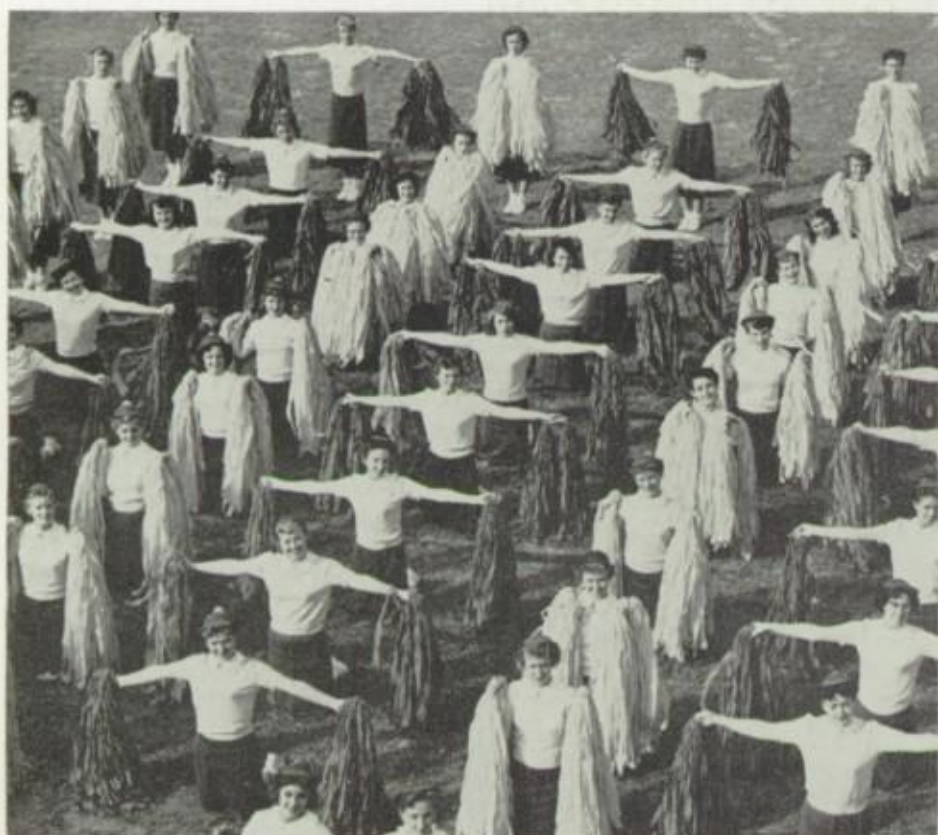

Grandstand sitters eat hot dogs and gulp soft drinks during the intermission.

It is questionable whether these wildly cheering girls will be able to speak above a whisper again.

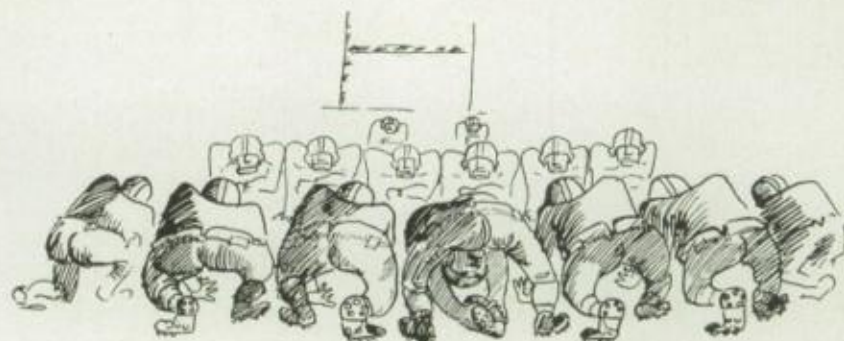

Thanks are due the photographer who took one picture on top of another for this whispering football squad and the antics of Carol Cena and Diane Stead.

Shown in battle formation are Franklin High's adept drill team artistes.

"We may give advice, but we cannot give conduct."

Varsity Football

Frank Hess, coaching his thirtieth season at Franklin, started the 1955 football campaign with only four returnees.

In the opening league tilt against Wilson, the Bens edged past with a final score 13-6. The Franklin Panthers were rewarded for their efforts by receiving the "Liberty Bell" as a gesture of sportsmanship between the two rivals, Franklin and Wilson. In other league contests, Franklin lost two games in the closing seconds of play. Lincoln emerged victorious 13-7, and Eagle Rock also won by the same score.

Franklin fullback, Larry McCrea, is shown at mid-field stripe on his way to 85 yard touchdown against Verdugo Hills. The Panthers took a 24-14 victory from the Dons.

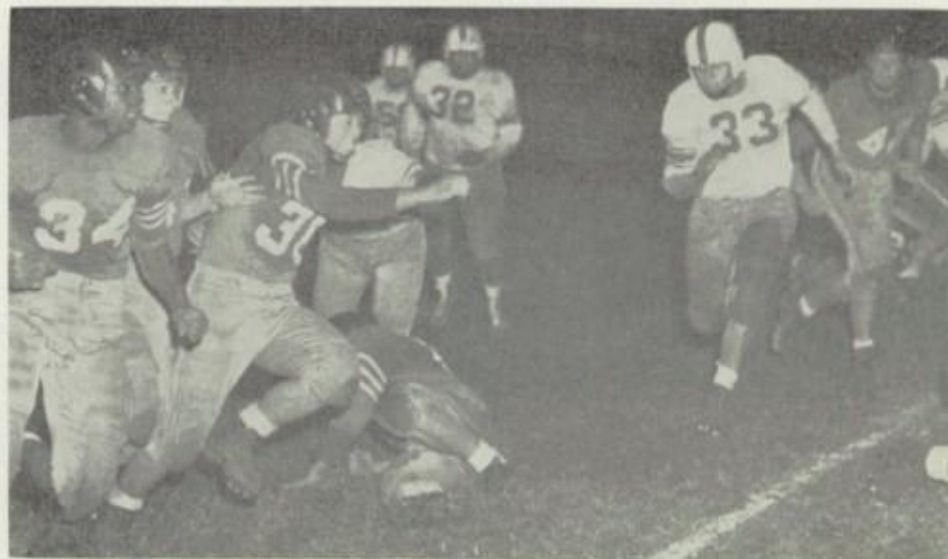

Bowling over Wilson defenders, is Panther half-back, Hank Grambush. The Bens captured 13-7 victory on Oxy turf in the league opener.

Taking to the airlines, Hank Grambush completes pass to Bob McGuire. The play against Verdugo Hills gained 35 yards and a touchdown.

Running to stop Los Angeles advance, is Ben lineman, Carlo Norton (33). The Panthers were topped by powerhouse Romans, 26-0, in the season's opener.

Larry McCrea (23) romps through Eagle Rock secondary for 33 yards and a near touchdown. McCrea scored second period TD five plays later. Franklin lost by a close 13-7 margin in the last few seconds of the tilt.

Hank Grambush bolts through Wilson High defenders for a 12 yard gain. Franklin won 13-6 in a Northern League lid lifter played at Occidental stadium.

Bee Football Players

Sultans

Franklin High's "mity" Bee grid squad ended its Northern League play in the first division for the eighth year in a row. The loss of two key backs weakened the Ben's chances for a loop crown. Anthony Croupe was disabled in the Hollywood High contest, and Leland Thompson suffered shoulder injuries later in the season.

Coach "Gus Spraker kept his club in first place contention by wins over Wilson, Eagle Rock, and Verdugo Hills.

The Ben aggregation landed team members on the all-league squads.

Voted special recognition by team members were Jay Lawrence, most valuable offensive player; Ernie Rodriguez, most valuable defensive player; and Tom Wickham, most valuable all-around player. Richard Carter received the Coach's award for "Most Inspirational Player."

The Franklin varsity five in 1955 were coached for the first time by "Happy" Jack Dowlin, who incidentally is coaching his last season as a bachelor.

The A's got off to a flying start by capturing their first three practice games against Garfield, South Pasadena, and Reseda. In the first league tilt Franklin collided with Wilson High and emerged victor 68-51.

League Champion Bees

A Northern League Championship, 13 straight victories, and golden basketballs, were captured by the Franklin Bees during the 1956 basketball season, as they added win after win without suffering a single loss, lengthening their total skein to 18 games in a row.

Two particular contests stood out during the '56 campaign. First, the Ben Bee club set a new school record for the most points scored in a single contest when they walloped Verdugo Hills 70-52. The second feat deserving of mention was a close contest with second place Lincoln. Franklin's high scoring five were held in check by the Abes during the first two stanzas of the game and were losing by six digits at halftime. In the final two periods the Ben Bees were unstoppable, and they won handily with an eleven point margin.

Walter Harcos and Barry Colby provided the necessary points on offense as Dave Berteaux snatched the basketball from numerous defenders. The team could not have functioned properly without the aid of Danny Lamb, Terry Silkwood, and Chuck Poehler.

Gold basketballs were awarded the Bees for their excellent league play by the Franklin Alumni Association.

Varsity Sprinters

B Shot Putter

Coach Clarence Ebers says, "Ernie Rodriguez should set a good record because his form is fine, and he has lots of speed."

Varsity Broad Jumper

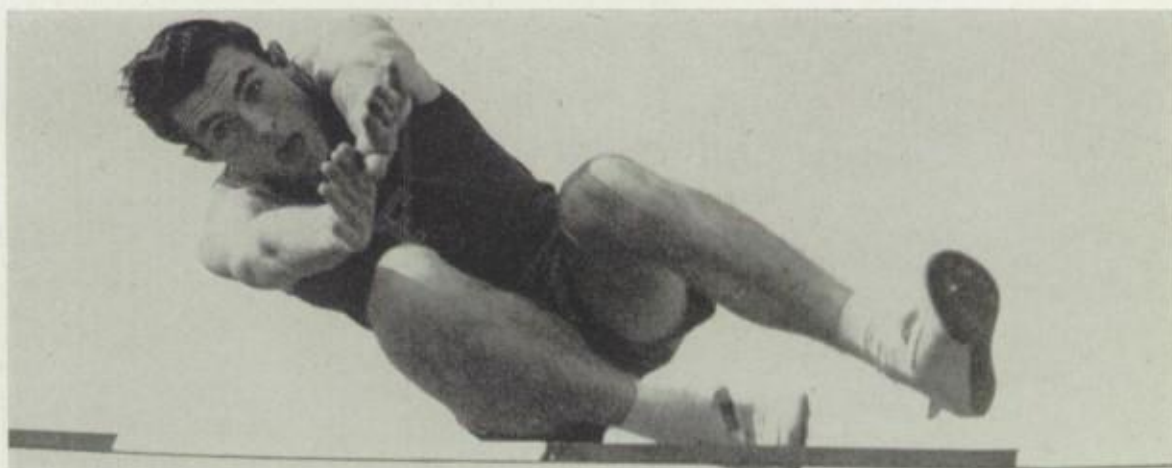

"Tom Wickham should be a consistent point getter on this year's team. He has the twenty foot best mark so far."

Varsity High Jump

"Tom Silkwood of basketball fame is expected to clear six feet before the end of the season."

A and B Distance Runner

Varsity Milers

Varsity Hurdlers

Left to right, Jack Robb, Tim Burns, and Robert Rhody could give Franklin the Northern League championship. In past years Franklin has lacked sufficient material for hurdlers.

Middle Distance Runners

Varsity Pole Vaulters

Bob Wood currently cleared twelve feet in the Marshall meet. According to Coach Gus Spraker, "Wood stands a good chance to win the league crown in this event."

Varsity Shot Putter

Mike Magie is Franklin's top putter with 46-8 to his credit.

Ben Gymnasts

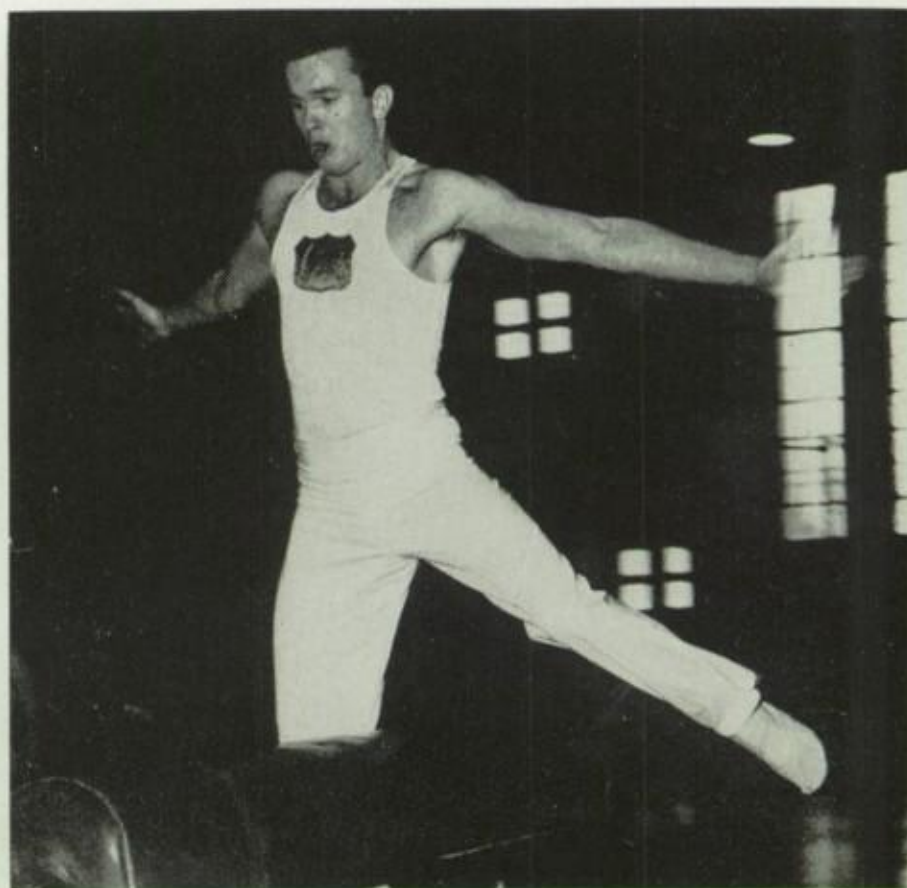

During the 1956 gymnastic season, Franklin lacked depth, having only twenty participants. The Bens were coached by Mr. Ralph Pettit, Franklin's new history teacher.

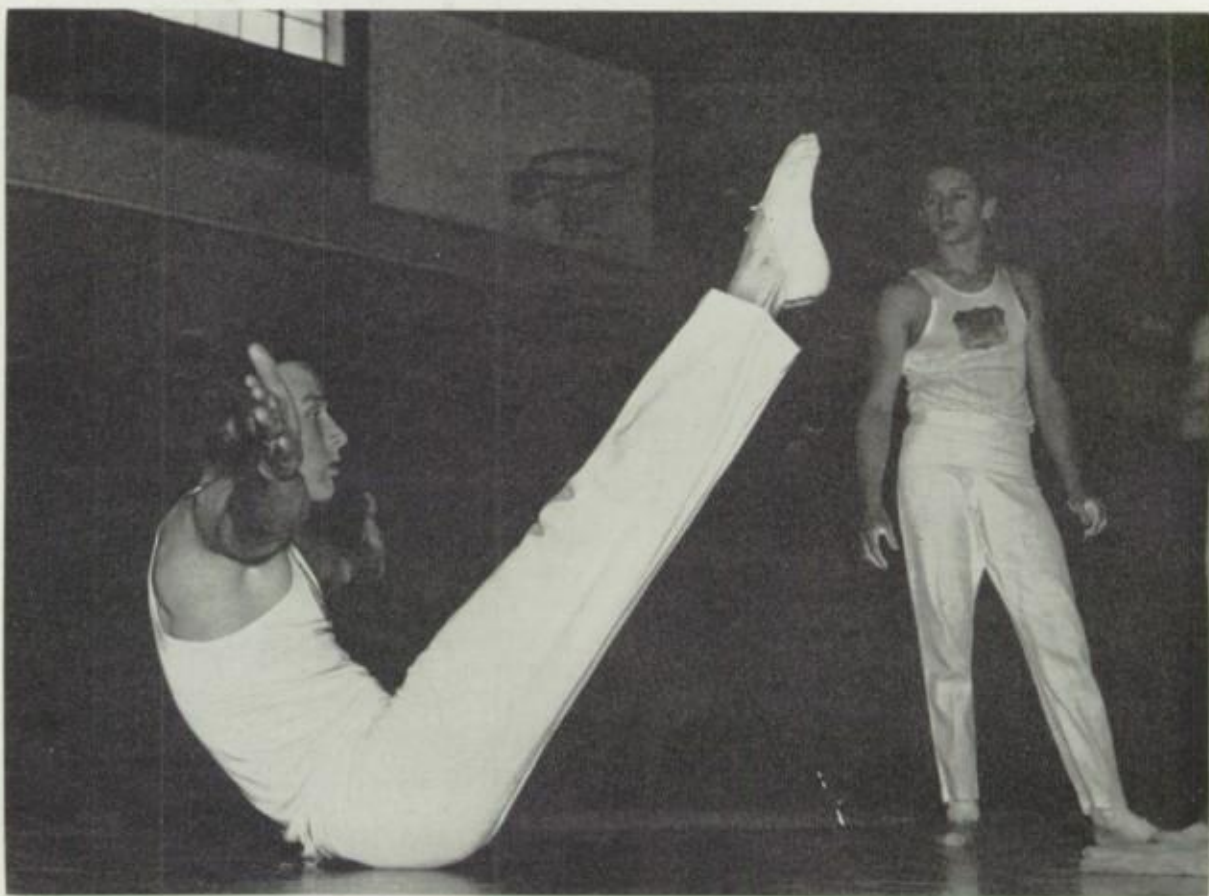

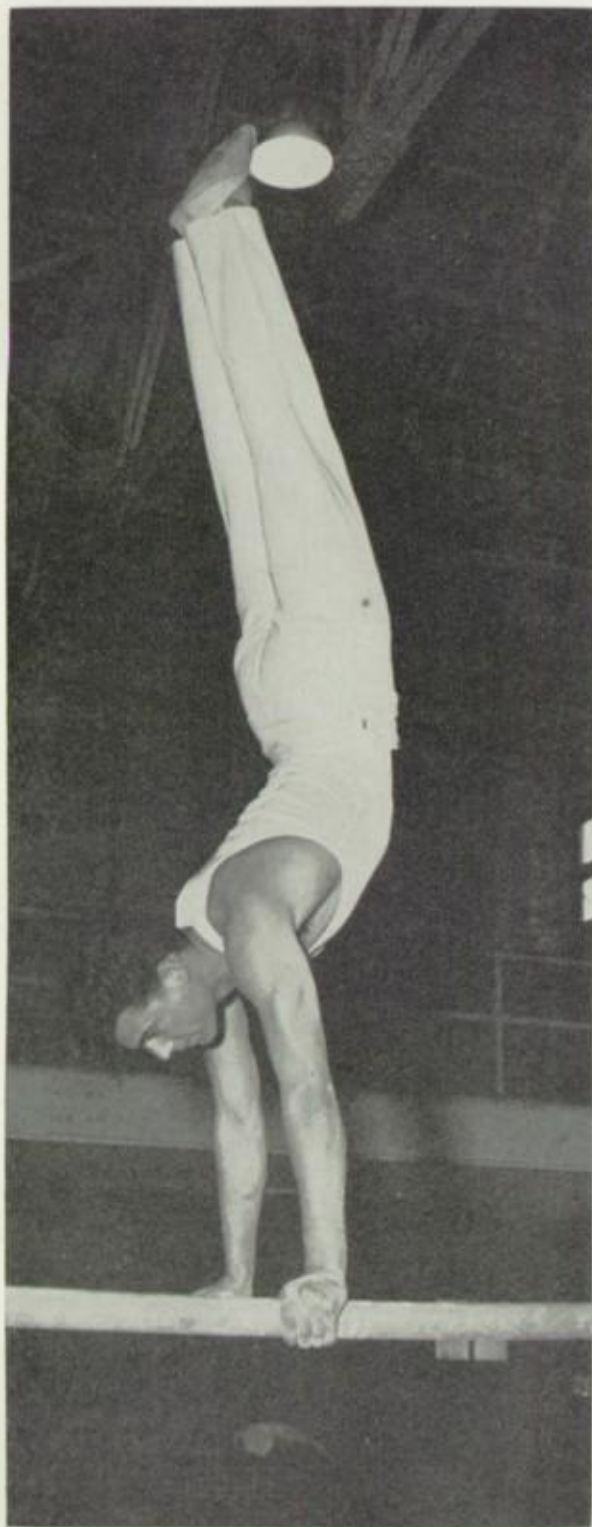

After losing meets to Wilson and Lincoln Highs, the Benmen snapped back with wins over Belmont and Eagle Rock.
